THE INSPIRATION

CARRIE MAE WEEMS

Untitled (Woman standing alone)

- Carrie Mae Weems is an influential African American artist, with many works featured in museums like The MET and M.O.M.A. She lives and works as an artist and professor in Syracuse, NY.

Kitchen Table Series 1990

- A series of photographs that tell a fictional story in which Weems plays the lead role. This series has influenced "a generation of women artists concerned with their own representation, as well as in conversations of race and relationships" (Steph Eckardt)."

Creator

The same way Carrie Mae Weems paired text with her photos, I wanted to create a complimentary art piece within mine.

Untitled

Creator, is more than just a self portrait to me. It's about the things that make up my identity and inspire the art I produce. This untitled piece was inspired by the NYC Art I learned about in my Macaulay Seminar, and by the distinct worlds that are Manhattan and my home in Queens.
